1 - T/F: Meningiomas are tumors originating in the meninges.

2 - In the brain, an obstructive blood clot that travels through the blood stream is called a ___embolus_________. It can cause a ___stroke_________.

2 – In the brain, an obstructive blood clot that remains in place is called a ___Thrombus_________. It can cause a ___stroke_________.

3 – During a stroke, cell death is due to:
   a) glial malfunction
   b) not enough oxygen
   c) too much hyperpolarization
   d) not enough vitamins

3 – During a stroke, cell death is due to:
   a) glial malfunction
   b) not enough oxygen
   c) too much hyperpolarization
   d) not enough vitamins

4 - T/F: A malignant tumor can easily be removed surgically.

4 - T/F: Fetal Alcohol Syndrome is induced by a virus.